

Registration starts on Friday 1 October 2021 via

<https://www.arcticdomainawarenesscenter.org>

On behalf of USNORTHCOM, Alaskan Command invites defense and security minded professionals to Arctic Symposium 2021

Event Theme: “Reducing Arctic Risks and Advancing Cooperation”

A three day in-person event*

Opening reception: 30 Nov 2021

Anchorage, Alaska

AAS21 is planned and organized by the Arctic Domain Awareness Center at the University of Alaska Anchorage (UAA) in support and in compliance with guidance from Alaskan Command (ALCOM) Commander and staff.

AAS21 will include several optional “pre-event” activities on 30 November, a series of multi-discipline panel presentations on 1 December, track and breakout activities on 2 December, and a concluding seminar and field activities on 3 December.

AAS 21 Plenary session starts at 8 AM Alaska Standard Time at Wendy Williamson Auditorium, UAA Main Campus, Anchorage.

Questions? Please contact: the Arctic Domain Awareness Center team:

- Executive Director, Randy “Church” Kee, Maj Gen, USAF (Ret) at rakee@alaska.edu
- Senior Research Professional Jason Roe, USCG (Ret) at jtroe2@alaska.edu

* Note: Virtual participation options will be available, but the principal focus is for “in-person” activities